

RELATIONSHIPS Scripture Prayer

Let's say THANK YOU to GOD for inviting us to engage in a close relationship with Him, as a part of His family, in heaven, and, as believers, in the earth. We are made a part of God's spiritual family, of which He is our Father, from whom all fatherhood takes its title and derives its name. (Eph 3:15 Amp)

Our Heavenly Father, stands at the door of our hearts and knocks and says if we hear HIS voice and open the door, He will come in and eat with us, and we with Him. (Rev 3:20) So we open our hearts today to our Father God, and trust Him. Abraham was called God's friend because he believed in God, and it was credited to Him as righteousness. (James 2:23)

Our Father God will help us to grow in His grace in all of our relationships, and teach us how to receive the unconditional love He has for each one of us, and how we let that love flow through us to others. (Romans 5:5)

Father God is the Redeemer and Restorer of our lives, and we say THANK YOU that we have a relationship with Him. And, through the power of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the help of Holy Spirit we can rise up higher and live "Above it All." We choose to Love GOD more, and to LOVE our neighbors as ourselves.

We say THANK YOU FATHER GOD for redeeming everything in our lives that was stolen from us. We receive more grace to grow so healing flows in every one of our relationships. We cast the cares of everything around us or distracting us, with the pleasures and delights, and false glammers and deceitfulness of riches, and cravings and passionate desires for other things of this world that would creep in and choke and suffocate GOD's Words of truth so they becomes fruitless. (Mark 4:19)

YES - We cast the whole of our cares [all our anxieties, and worries, all our concerns, once and for all] on God, for He cares for us affectionately and cares about us watchfully (1 Peter 5:7). We thank God for stress free relationships and solid friendships.
