

ANSWERS Scripture Prayers

You know the streets of our cities are full of needy people - rich and poor. We never know who we help when we pray; but, according to John 14:23, we are to pray until we are filled with joy, and we are assured from that scripture that whatever we ask in Jesus' name, we will receive, so that our gladness, delight, and joy might be full and complete.

Throughout history, God has revealed Himself to His people by many names. Whatever your need is, He is prepared to provide it. When we are confused about the future, we go to Jehovah-naah: our caring shepherd. When we are anxious about provision, we talk to Jehovah-Jireh: the Lord who provides. If challenges appear too great, we seek the help of Jehovah-shalom: the Lord is our peace. If our hearts are troubled, He is Jehovah-rophe, the Lord who heals us. If we feel like a soldier stranded behind enemy lines, we take refuge in Jehovah-nissi: the Lord our banner.

God is our shepherd who guides us; the Lord who provides, the voice who brings peace in the storm, the physician who heals the sick, and the banner that guides the soldier. I have learned that the more I pray, the more I WILL pray. You see sometimes I pray for a while, just to get to the place in prayer I am really looking for, and then I pray more and more deeply, to receive more answers.

YES GOD ANSWERS PRAYERS and He is able to keep us from falling, able to keep us without stumbling, or slipping, and to present us unblemished before the presence of His glory in triumph and with unspeakable delight.

Each of us, as God's children, can learn how to live above our circumstances and walk through our valleys and climb to our next mountain top. We can live on higher ground, praying and trusting God for answers.

TRUTH MUST BE DECLARED (Job 22:28 Amplified) THOUGH FOR IT TO PRODUCE THE FORCE IT'S INTENDED TO PRODUCE.

We declare and decree our destiny in God is coming to pass, and we receive answers from Him for what we need. We declare we will rejoice in the Lord, and like Habbakuk said in chapter 3 of his book, we can also say we will exult in the [victorious] God of our salvation! For The Lord God is our Strength, our personal bravery, and our invincible army; He makes our feet like hinds' feet and will make us to walk [not to stand still in terror, but to walk] and make [spiritual] progress upon our high places [of trouble, suffering, or responsibility]! (Hab 3:18, 19)
